BY AMANDA N. ROSS NOVEMBER 17, 2015

Stomachs are rumbling across the city as the opening of Eli's Night Shift draws closer. Famous grocer Eli Zabar's new place opens tomorrow, November 18, at 79th Street and Third Avenue, making Upper East Siders very happy. The new eatery, which is a joint venture with Zabar's son Oliver, will feature a menu of upscale comfort food as well as a bar stocked with an extensive beer list, curated wines, and craft cocktails.

Open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner—plus takeout!—it's both upscale and down home, and sure to be a neighborhood hit.
