Fewer things hit the spot quite like a classic breakfast sandwich. Whether to nurse a hangover or to fuel you for the day, a good BEC is truly the breakfast of champions. Chefs all over the city are serving playful riffs on this morning staple by trading in slices of bread for Danish pastries, swapping bacon with fried chicken, and adding maple syrup to the equation. Here's a roundup of 12 awesome breakfast sandwiches worth getting out of bed for:

[Restaurants are listed by geography: south to north in Manhattan, and north to south in Brooklyn.]

6 Eli's Table

Amagansett egg sandwich with bacon or ham on brioche ($8) that steals the show. The sandwich has made its way to other Elu locations and E.A.T. as well.
