

5 Places to Get a Thanksgiving Dinner to Go in Manhattan

Don't Be a Turkey: Really Enjoy Thanksgiving with a Meal-to-Go in NYC

BY HUBERT VIGILLA | Updated 11/06/17

Thanksgiving is a great time for enjoying family and friends, but preparing the big meal can be really stressful. Turkeys take hours to bake, not to mention prep time for all of the side dishes. There's also the grocery shopping required to get a full meal all ready to go. Not to mention Manhattan's shoebox-sized apartments (and kitchens)! With so many hassles to consider, don't overlook ordering up a catered Thanksgiving meal, so that you can really enjoy the holiday.

A number of establishments in New York City offering catering for Thanksgiving dinner, where you can pick up your order in the days before Thanksgiving. To cut down even that hassle, here are 5 Manhattan grocery stores that offer Thanksgiving menus, as well as delivery. (Another option: Consider these Best Restaurants for Thanksgiving Dinner in NYC.)

3. The Vinegar Factory

Located across the island from Zabar's, The Vinegar Factory was started by Eli Zabar and continues to grow the idea of what a large grocery store can be. The Vinegar Factory offers a full Thanksgiving menu each year, including free-range turkeys, corn pudding, glazed butternut squash, pumpkin pie, and more. Check this link soon for updates on 2016's offerings: elizabar.com/Catering-W98.aspx. 431 E. 91st St., btwn 1st & York aves.