

5 Best Places To Shop For Holiday Party Decor In New York City

November 20, 2015 6:00 AM

This holiday season impress your guests with fun and fabulous decor. Thankfully, these five stores (and sites) are making it easy to find everything from the perfect serving tray to festive centerpieces. By Carly Petrone.

Eli Zabar's

New York, NY

Eli Zabar's has just launched a brand new site, making it even easier for you to get your holiday party shopping done. If you're looking for a festive way to seat your guests, definitely check out their adorable Gingerbread People. Give the store the names of your guests and they'll pipe them onto four 6-inch tall fellows' aprons. Not a fan of gingerbread? No problem. They're also making these cute "place cards" out of shortbread. Grab a pack of four for $24 and show your guests your creative side.

