Is This the World's WASPiest Dessert?

From standout Italian to world-class sushi, here are the best neighborhood restaurants to try now.

Eli's Table

Vibe: New Yorkers know the name Eli Zabar from his high-end markets around the city and in the Hamptons. His charming full-service restaurant features a menu that changes with the seasons.

Standout Dishes: Dry Aged Steak for Two & Hand Cut Pommes Frites, Eli's Rooftop Greens with Banyuls Vinaigrette (sourced from his rooftop greenhouse on York Ave)

What to Drink: Choose from among the wine cellar's more than 22,000 bottles; the list focuses heavily on Burgundy and Piedmont.
